

Nature Walk Questions

1. Biodiversity means having a wide variety of living things in the same area. Why is it important to have biodiversity?
2. Predict what might happen if a certain abiotic factor, such as soil or sunlight, were removed from an ecosystem.
3. Predict what might happen if a new type of living thing was introduced to an ecosystem. (At least 2 ideas)
4. What factors might cause the population of certain species to change? (Give 3 examples)